Children will be divided into groups based on both age and experience

Campers should bring water and a healthy snack for break time. Comfortable fitting clothes (shorts, sweats, t-shirts, leotards). Dance shoes preferred but not mandatory. No Black bottomed sneakers please.

JAZZ-Campers will have a daily jazz warm-up to increase strength, stretch, balance and learn fun jazz moves.

HIP – HOP-will increase kid's funky moves as well as improve musicality and rhythm.

SWING & LATIN DANCING-will round out their dynamic dancing and bring them into the wonderful world of partner dancing.

Every day will include a break time to have a healthy snack while viewing the latest Hip Hop video, top notch Salsa or a Broadway dance number followed by a brief discussion. Students will have the opportunity to express their ideas in movement and explore the reason they dance and their own personal movement. Co- directors Johnny and Diane recognize the individuality of each child and will nurture their individual style and strengths through creative activities.

THE FINAL SHOW

All three dance disciplines will be pulled together in a performance on Friday the 10th at noon. Not only will children be learning new techniques and dances, they will also take part in the creative process of choreographing a dance piece to show what they have learned during the week-long camp.

CAMP DIRECTORS/TEACHERS

Camp Instructors Diane Lachtrupp Martinez, Johnny Martinez and Juan Soler all have extensive experience working with kids. Your children will be dancing and learning in a supportive, fun and creative atmosphere that discovers and develops the dancer in them.

DIANE LACHTRUPP MARTINEZ - Diane is a prize winning tango and salsa dancer. She holds a B.A. in Theatre from the University of Vermont and a Masters from NYU in Musical Theatre Choreography.

JOHNNY MARTINEZ - Johnny holds a BME in Engineering from Pratt University. He has performed in the National and European Tours of "West Side Story", "Damn Yankees", and "Fiddler on the Roof."

JUAN SOLER - If you have ever encountered Tigger or Aladdin at Disney World, you may have met Juan Soler already! Juan's dance career has brought him from dancing in the 2000 Macy's Day Parade and Saratoga Performing Arts Center with Neil Young and Crazy Horse, to co-creating a dance company called "Soul Desire", ministering to inner city kids through hip-hop dance.
